UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
Patent and Trademark Office
ASSISTANT SECRETARY AND COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS
AND TRADEMARKS
Washington, D.C. 20231

Paper No:12

Serial Number: 10/083669

Filing Date: February 26,2002

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 58,64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 58,64 are directed towards buildings not present in the independent claims.

3. A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope.

Art Unit: 2837

The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

4. Claims 1,55-58,60-64,66-69,71-73 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-5,15,16,36,37,46-50,53 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,349,797. This is a double patenting rejection.

In light of the specification, it does not appear that a separate distinct invention is claimed in the instant application. The instant claims merely delete references to the environment (elevator) from 6,349,797. However some of the instant application dependent claims add such references, specifically claims 59,61,64,65,68,70,72,73.

Either specification does not appear to be directed towards any other environment other than an elevator. Thus, both the instant application does not appear to define a separate invention and are considered to be the "same invention".

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 59,65,70 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1,36,47 of U.S. Patent No. 6,349,797 in view of DiFranza et al (5,955,710).

Art Unit: 2837

Newville et al (6,349,797) does not claim the occupancy detector and associated control of the advertising.

DiFranza (5,955,710) does not contain a non-source specific first data which contains video category information.

DiFranza does illustrate the occupancy detector for the generation of the building play list to aid in the billing process.

Thus, to utilize an occupancy detector for the control of a play list in elevator advertising would have been an obvious engineering design choice to one of ordinary skill in the art.

7. Applicant's arguments filed 6-24-03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant states that other options are available for the placement of the display such as lobby.

In light of each specification, no other options other than in the elevator exist although they may be desired by applicant. Each reference to the placement of the device within the instant specification as well as the '797 patent specifically call for an elevator or personnel vehicle. No other options exist.

Thus, the instant invention is not seen as different from the '797 patent by the deletion of references to location.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
